

ROBLOX

Family Conversation Guide

Questions Parents can Ask:

If your child is asking for Roblox OR you want to remove Roblox from their life, use these questions to start the conversation.

1. What do you think makes Roblox so popular with kids your age?
2. What is the best story you've heard about someone having fun on Roblox?
3. What kind of bad stories have you heard about happening on Roblox?
4. Why do you think we (Mom & Dad) would be concerned about you playing on Roblox?
5. What are some real-life activities or games that give you joy without a screen?
6. How do you think God wants us to use our time, our friendships, and our creativity?

Child Reflection Prompts:

If your child isn't open to or able to discuss the questions above, these simple prompts can start the conversation.

I feel _____ when my friends play Roblox and I can't.

One thing I like about Roblox (or I think I would like) is _____.

One thing that scares me or feels unsafe about Roblox is _____.

Something I can do in real life that is just as fun is _____.

I believe God wants me to spend my time and creativity doing _____.

Scripture Anchors:

Turn to these Scriptures together in the Bible and reflect on how these truths impact how your family makes decisions

Genesis 1:27 God created man in His own image

Ephesians 2:10 We are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

Ephesians 5:15-17 Be careful how you live - not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore, do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens.

Psalms 119:37 Turn my eyes away from worthless things; preserve my life according to your Word.
